

Irell Secures $142 Million Patent Damages Verdict for G+ Communications Against Samsung

Professionals

Lisa S. Glasser
Michael Harbour
Justin Linetski
Benjamin Manzin-Monnin
Jason G. Sheasby

04.2024

An Irell team secured $142 million in patent damages on behalf of client G+ Communications in a retrial of the damages portion of its original case against Samsung over patents essential to the 5G standard. The jury trial was heard by Judge Rodney Gilstrap in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. The jury's award of $142 million was the full amount requested.

Practice Areas

Intellectual Property
Litigation
Litigation

The Irell team included Jason Sheasby, Lisa Glasser, Benjamin Manzin-Monnin, Michael Harbour and Justin Linetski. Jennifer Truelove of McKool Smith served as co-counsel.

The case is G+ Communications, LLC v. Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd., et al., 2:22-cv-00078.