Irell & Manella LLP scored Law360 Practice of the Year honors for IP, Trials and Technology. Each award recognized the firm's string of recent blockbuster victories, including a $949 million patent trial win for VLSI Technology against Intel, a $303 million infringement verdict for Netlist against Samsung, and a $59.5 million verdict for DePuy Synthes in a patent suit against Veterinary Orthopedic Implants and Fidelio Capital. In each category, Irell was one of only five firms honored throughout the U.S.
